

CHINESE (CCN) (CHIN&)

---

CHIN& 121 Chinese I 5 Credits

Introduces the four basic skills of the Chinese language (Mandarin): listening, speaking, reading, and writing. Focuses on learning correct pronunciation, character writing structure and basic grammar. Studies the Chinese language within its cultural context.

Prerequisite: None.

Distribution Requirements: Humanities

CHIN& 122 Chinese II 5 Credits

Builds on CHIN& 121 to work toward mastery of first-year Chinese (Mandarin), with focus on listening, speaking, reading and writing. Continues to study the Chinese language within its cultural context.

Prerequisite: Prerequisite: CHIN& 121 or instructor's permission.

Distribution Requirements: Humanities

CHIN& 123 Chinese III 5 Credits

Chinese 123 is a continuation of Chinese 122, a course in elementary Chinese for non-native speakers. Its aim is to help students develop further communicative skills in Mandarin Chinese. This course was formerly known as CHIN 103.

Prerequisite: Prerequisite: CHIN& 122 or instructor's permission.

Distribution Requirements: Humanities