

ECONOMICS (CCN) (ECON&)

ECON& 201 Micro Economics 5 Credits

Develops a framework for understanding the fundamentals of price theory by applying practical applications of microeconomic analysis and general equilibrium models. Includes the analysis of government intervention in a free market and explores concepts in market welfare.

Prerequisite: Prerequisite: Completion of MATH 097 or appropriate placement test.

Distribution Requirements: Social Science

ECON& 202 Macro Economics 5 Credits

Introduces fundamental models of macroeconomics and illustrates macro principles through U.S. experience in the global economy.

Prerequisite: Prerequisite: Completion of MATH 097 or appropriate placement test.

Distribution Requirements: Social Science