

ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE (ENVS)

Environmental Science (ENVS)

ENVS 102 Climate Change & Society 5 Credits

Investigates climate change and environmental systems and explores impacts on human society through differing worldviews. Recommended: ENVS& 100.

Prerequisite: None.

Distribution Requirements: Natural Science

ENVS 203 Climate and Energy Solutions 5 Credits

Introduces natural and anthropogenic climate change and related effects across geologic and biologic timescales. Reviews current and emerging clean technologies. Recommended: ENVS& 100 or ENVS 102.

Prerequisite: None

Distribution Requirements: Natural Science with Lab

ENVS 301 Business and Sustainability Principles and Practice 5 Credits

Introduces concepts of environmental ethics, resource conservation, and sustainability frameworks as they relate to business and environmental sustainability.

Prerequisite: Prerequisite: ENGL& 101 with a C or better.

Distribution Requirements: Natural Science

Environmental Science (CCN) (ENVS&)

ENVS 100 Survey of Environmental Science 5 Credits

Explores the workings of planet Earth in terms of living organisms and non-living resources, including roles that human activities play in the world around us.

Prerequisite: None.

Distribution Requirements: Natural Science